Author's Notes:
There\'s an icon challenge going round on lj, jf and such places. This one fits my jf icon which is a screen cap of Duff and Scott hugging from the Fall to Pieces video.

A broken heart, a damaged soul, all you can do is hold on and hope he will see that he has something to live for.

You have to give him the chance to make his mistakes however much you want to wrap him in bubble wrap. He has to live this life his way, to handle his own demons.

That he makes your life worth living, you just don't go there, you can't add to his burdens like that.

So you just hold on, hold him when it's dark, hold him in the light, hold him when he needs you.
